4—PMTF Daily Index and C+E by District

Good evening,

Weather delayed the start of fishing today, but the vessels were still able to cover the full transect. While it's unclear exactly what occurred yesterday, today's Daily Catch Index suggests sustained strength in the migration rate past the test fishery. Catch and escapement likely increased today and are expected to remain strong tomorrow.

PMTF Stock Composition Status: The 9th stock composition (July 2-3) has been delayed but should be released tomorrow (July 6).
